

AGU B. V. is seeking an Account Manager for the district of East Denmark

AGU B.V. in 2010 established its own B2B organization in Denmark and the company has since experienced immense interest and growth in Denmark. As it's AGU's target to become a proactive part of the Danish bicycle dealers everyday business, we now wish to expand our organization with additional staff. This employee is to become our Account Manager for the district of East Denmark, as well as being part of developing the known and appreciated brands AGU and Cordo.

Your Daily work will consist of visiting our partners in your district and promoting the AGU related brands and business solutions. It demands stamina, determination and a willingness to get the job done. There will be around 8 days of travelling to the Netherlands a year as well as weekend and evening work will be demanded in relation to fairs, exhibitions and events. As we are still developing as a company in the Danish market a certain amount of canvas sales should also be expected.

To be recognized as a qualified applier for the job, you should recognize the following characteristics:

Positive and "selling" personality

Documented experience in sales

Advanced user of Windows Office.

Fluent in oral and written English.

You will be supervised and supported by AGU in Denmark, but as your job requires a lot of time visiting business partners by car, you have the ability to work independently, insistent and self motivated based on clear personal targets.

You are prepared to make your contribution to a good and healthy working environment for you and your 180 colleges. You thrive in an international working environment.
